Please note the following important notes

1. You MUST be cleared by your supervisor before you avail yourself to present.
2. You are expected to present singe copy of your documentation one week before the panel date to your supervisor for marking. This should be spiral bound
3.

4. Any student who doesn't defend their work as per schedule will be awarded a grade of Fail (F) after which they will be expected to pay, begin the research project afresh with a different topic and supervisor.
5. Any student who will not be present according to the schedule will be deemed to have absented themselves and so will get an F score.
6. Programming frameworks are STRICKLY PROHIBITED while implementing the project. Any student who uses a framework will have his entire project nullified by the department.
7. Students are supposed to ensure their work is void of a form of plagiarism/code copying. Any of the above will lead to the entire project being nullified by the department
8. We are expected to continuously see our supervisors for feedback. Any student who doesn't meet with their supervisors and present their project will lead to the entire project being nullified
9. Students are supposed to ensure they keep a log book and the log book is signed by the supervisor every time they meet. No student will be allowed to defend their work if they have not been meeting their supervisor and there is no proof of such
10. After Presentation you will be required to submit within a week 2 copies of hard bound of the final document (after supervisors' comments).
11. The color them for hard bound document should be strictly as communicated to the student (black with boxes). Any document bound using a different color will be rejected automatically.
12. Any document that doesn't follow the standard department structure will be rejected as "substandard" by the department
13. You will receive the result (advice and comments) of the presentations only from your supervisor
14. You will receive provisional pass list in a week's times from the department after presenting your
